Dedication

*Step softly,
Ere the sands of time
Be disturbed by transient passing.*

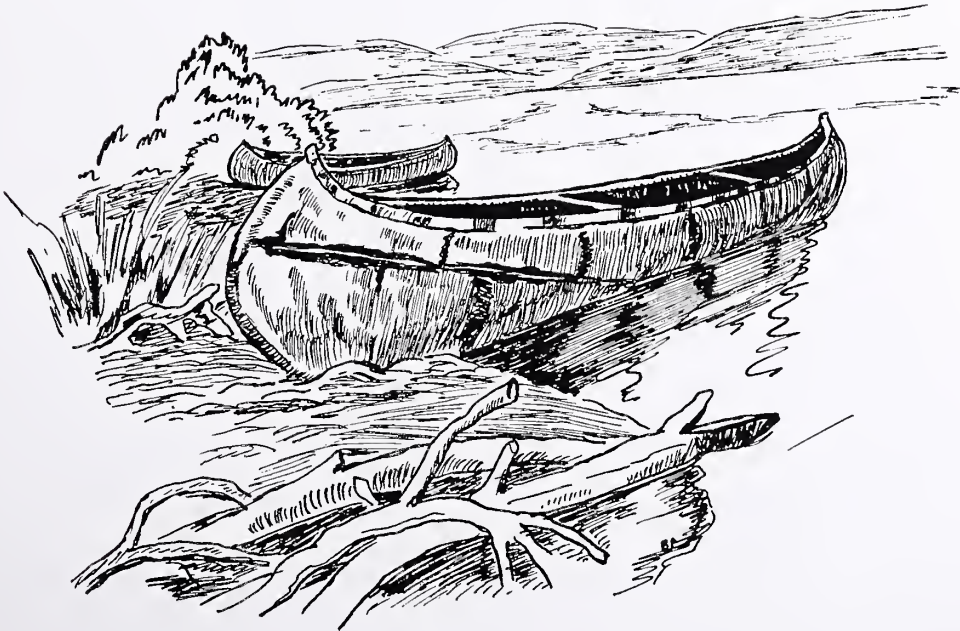

*Tread lightly,
Ere you blot the prints
Of greater men than you or I.*

*Walk slowly,
Ere your way be hidden
By the sorrows caused by haste.*

*Choose wisely,
Ere you lose the Light,
Staid Knowledge; Man's distinctive Crown.*

You! You warriors of tomorrow.

Prophecy of the Warriors - - -

After the depression the wealthy owner of the Tuxedo Feed Store, Richard Baker, dwindled away to nothing and is now quite well known for his book, Shadow of My Former Self.

Betty Ballard, a famous scholar of eugenics, has disclosed to the world the formula for red (oops, I mean auburn) hair and freckles.

After his extensive training in the Classical field, Robert Bales replaced Mrs. Lynn as instructor of Latin so she can spend her full time filing excuses.

Jo Ann Barger, better known to us as "Queenie," is now the Supreme Monarch of the Isle of Bongo-Songa, only fifteen hundred miles from Suga-Suga.

"Trink" Campbell, better known as "Digger," has made record progress in the mortician's field. His motto, "Campbell's Caskets are Cozy," has become the byword of the nation. He would be the last man in the world to let you down.

Sarah Fann Deibert, one of our more versatile classmates, who always thought "variety was the spice of life," has been married and divorced many times; but it seems that she has finally settled down and is now running a nursery for the married couples of C. F. H. S.

Jean Harlow, Dottie Miller and Jean Tyree, who got an early start in life, seemed to have kept at it; for they now own and operate a second-hand jewelry store, dealing mostly in engagement rings.

William Wilkins, voted by his classmates "to go far in the world," must have taken us literally; for he is now an Admiral in the U. S. Navy and has circumnavigated the globe sixteen times. He was recently rescued when he tripped over his sword and fell into a fish pond!

Donna Rae Harrell, one of our brightest classmates, who became a famous psychiatrist, made the fatal mistake of psychoanalyzing herself and is now enjoying a nice, private, padded cell!

Bob Pollock is now a foreign missionary in the Belgian Congo; his wife, the former "Dickie" Deaton, gave up her first chair in the Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra to go along to protect him.

Margaret Howard has become the first notorious (er, uh—I mean famous) lady house painter. She recently discovered a new shade which has shocked the world; it's called Passionate Purple.

Jean Brown, one of the more shy and reserved girls of the class, is now working in a burlesque show in Roanoke, a suburb of Clifton Forge.

Peggy "Pete" Wilhelm, one of our high school "hot rod racers," gave up a promising career as a hell-driver to become a great lady in the business world; she designs the internationally famous racing jigsaw known as the "Streamlined Puddle Jumper."

Gloria Taylor, the brilliant star of our Senior Class Play, turned to acting as a career; she has risen rapidly to stardom by replacing Jane Russell as "Sweater Girl of 1961."

Robert Westerman, after spending the best years of his life in high school, decided it was too late for a change. He bought himself a pair of crepe-soled shoes and is now principal of our old "Alma-Mater."

Farmer Herman Smith, an advocate of scientific farming, since his eight years at V. P. I. has recently discovered oil while planting radishes in his flower bed. This added wealth allows him to spend more time in his attempt to grow an egg plant with two yokes.

After Joanne Eanes lost dozens of arguments that her hair was not red, but auburn, she took a course in the Art of Debating and now is chief counselor for Domestic Relations Cases at the State Capital on Main Street.

Tommy Nelson, after writing the CFHS school song, continued with his productions and after years of inspiration an achievement was rewarded with the position as Dean of Richpatch University.

Gladys Jeffries just couldn't get used to signing her name correctly on checks. She is now making plenty of cash writing "Advice for the Lovelorn" for the Daily Review, one of Clifton Forge's leading newspapers.

Peggy "Pete" Evans, after graduation, turned to journalism to earn her "bread and butter," of which she only got the crumbs. She has recently received recognition in the literary field for her book, Life Behind the Iron Curtain, which, by the way, has been dedicated to the CFHS faculty of 1951.

Tommy Ingram, one of those "characters" who has to argue down another person's opinion before he can believe his own, has become a state senator and has done a lot to improve our "ole school" by installing an elevator so the love-sick couples do not have to be disturbed at lunch time by teachers and students who insist on parading up and down the middle steps.

Marguerite Thurston who, after graduation, decided to become a nurse, was recently promoted to chief back-scratcher for Western State Hospital in Staunton.

Nancy Hambrick has really worked herself up in the world; she recently replaced Bill Sterns as sports announcer and has her office on the tenth floor of Station W.C.F.V.

Peggy Rapp married half a dozen times to practice cooking for different men. Now she considers herself an expert and is second in command in the hot-dog section of the large new Cafe La Stoooge.

"Jerry" Smith, recently voted business woman of the year, got her start as a secretary but was fired after going on a sit-down strike, which she quickly gave up; now her theme is: "I Ain't Gonna Take It Sittin' Down."

Mildred Overhulser decided to go in training; and after careful preparation in the latest medical treatments, landed a job at the local zoo, where she takes care of sick monkeys and snakes.

Barbara Booth, while experimenting with ice cream one day, discovered a drug which is a sure cure for toothache among chickens. She is now slaving night and day to discover a new laundry soap that just "Won't Do Anything."

Song of the Warriors - - -

(CLASS POEM)

A RETURN TO CHILDHOOD

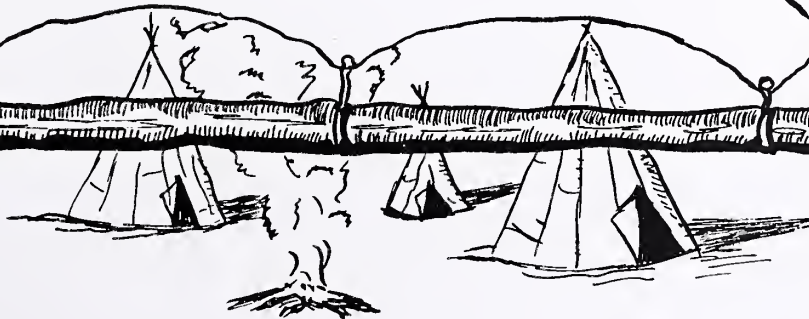

Tread softly through the silent Halls.
Hear the echoes of the past?
Steal glances from the towering Walls.
Seek fond Memories; hold them fast!

Step inside an empty classroom.
Feel the presence of your friends?
Take a chalk and mark a slate.
Taste the spice of childish trends?

Find a desk and sit therein.
Hear a teacher call the roll?
See the Bible on the shelf.
Feel the goodness in your soul?

Walk slowly through the open doors.
Is there a burning in your heart?
Look back upon a scholar's shrine,
And with deep thoughts of Now and Then . . .
... Depart.

Gridiron Season In Review

The light but scrappy Mountaineer squad had a very successful season in spite of the heavy schedule that faced them this year. They got off to a slow start but ended the season with the best record our school has boasted in over six years.

The Green and Gold traveled to Waynesboro and were defeated by the Little Giants in the opening game of the season. The Mountaineers fought hard but could not seem to get together to stop the tricky Waynesboro "T."

The first home game also resulted in a loss, as Natural Bridge came out on top by a touchdown.

With their same fighting spirit but new gold uniforms, the underdog Mountaineers fought the Harrisonburg Blue Streaks on their own field to a 13 to 13 tie. The Blue Streaks' powerful running attacks were stopped time and time again by Ailstock and Liptrap. James Wright, playing tackle and fullback, scored both T. D.'s.

On the following Friday came the first win of the season as the Green and Gold turned back the Buena Vista Eleven by a one point margin. Shelton and Ingram anchored the line on defense; and in the last few seconds of the ball game Buddy Smith plunged over for the last Mountaineer touchdown and consequent victory.

In the next game of the season the outclassed Mountaineers waged an unsuccessful attack against the Staunton Leemen and bowed 32 to 0. Greaver and Vint displayed excellent defensive ability all through the game.

For the last two years the Hornets of Valley High have seemed to place a jinx on Clifton Forge, but this year the tables were turned and the Mountaineers handed them a 26 to 7 defeat. This team was the closest to our own weight class of any team played this year. Campbell, on the line, and Mundy, in the backfield, played excellently.

The Mountaineers had not scored in five years against Winchester, a consolidated school of twice our size. Westerman and Woods led the attack against the Judges; and after a long and hard-fought ball game, the scoreboard read, "Clifton, 14; Winchester, 6."

The Central Falcons were next to fall under the winning streak of the Mountaineers. The Green and Gold's reserves played the greater part of the game, allowing only one T. D. to be scored against them while they tallied four times. This was the last home game of the season.

When C. F. H. S. encountered Lexington High, the two teams had almost the same record in regard to the number of games lost and won. Therefore, it came as no surprise that the game was an extremely close one. In the last quarter the score remained tied until Tommy Vance intercepted a pass and carried the ball over for the last touchdown of the ball game. In addition to Vance, Herman Smith and Clarence Gibson figured prominently in the victory over the Hurricanes.

The final game of the 1950 grid season was with our arch rivals, the Covington Cougars. The Cougars crossed the Mountaineer goal line three times in the first half, but in the second half the Clifton Forge squad out-scrapped their arch opponents and pushed across one T. D. against the heavy Cougar line. Howard, running from fullback, led the offense as "Stonewall" Hayslett rallied the forward wall.

At the post-season banquet, given by the Quarterback Club for the members of the 1950 football team, trophies were given to Tommy Vance, outstanding lineman, and James Wright, outstanding back. Vance was also honored as second string All-Conference end. Miniature silver footballs were awarded to each member of the squad.

Beyond a doubt this season was a most successful one for the Mountaineers. They proved themselves to be a team possessing an excellent coach, the highest traits of good sportsmanship, and a most laudable fighting spirit.

Varsity Cage Season Resume

The Mountaineers completed their most successful basketball season since 1946, when they wound up with a fourteen to seven won-lost record.

With five returning lettermen from the 1950 team, Coach Hartley's Green and Gold quintet won eight of thirteen District 5 games to clinch third place in the seasonal standings. The team also won a right to compete in the championship tournament at Lexington, where Harrisonburg defeated them 48-27.

In regular season play, Clifton Forge twice defeated Lexington, Waynesboro and Covington. Winchester and Wilson Memorial edged them for the other loss.

Early in the season, the Mountaineers won their first district game when the tall Winchester Judges bowed 57-35. It was one of the most impressive victories of the season as the shorter Mountaineers completely outplayed and outfought the losers.

They downed the Waynesboro Little Giants, the 1949 champions, 58-42. A twenty-six point third quarter overcame an 18-17 half-time deficit and they coasted through the last period for the victory.

The next night Wilson handed them a 36-34 defeat, their first loss.

The boys had little trouble the next two games as they downed Lexington 64-38 and triumphed 44-30 over the rival Covington Cougars.

The Staunton Leemen then dealt the big five their second loss, on January 18 in an overtime thriller which ended with a score of 67-64. The contest had been close all the way, but Staunton had led most of the time until a few seconds before the final gun.

The Mountaineers got back on the victory path as they defeated Lexington again 45-30. Then Harrisonburg trounced them 60-37 in a twice postponed game. The Blue Streaks again defeated them by twenty points.

Between the two disastrous Harrisonburg contests, the Green and Gold salvaged a 40-37 win from Wilson and lost to Staunton 72-65. In the Staunton game, the Leemen's Bucky Vest scored thirty-five points, only one short of the conference record. Clarence Gibson netted twenty-nine, a three season high for the Mountaineers.

Covington upset C. F. H. S. 37-47, but the Cougars' Gene Huffman was ineligible and five days later Virginia High School League officials declared the game a forfeit.

Our team overcame a 30-19 half-time deficit to defeat Waynesboro 57-56 in overtime. Bobby Westerman scored twenty points and played a magnificent floor game on offense and defense as they squeezed into the tournament.

Against non-conference competition, C.F.H.S. won six games and lost one. On February 17, Valley High won a close decision, 45-41, for our only defeat in non-district play. In an earlier game, the Mountaineer five dropped Valley High 50-47. In other non-conference games, Eagle Rock was defeated 50-35 and 40-41, and Central was walloped 80-51 and 71-47. The Alumni were trounced 69-33 to end the season.

Tommy Vance, captain of the team, led scorers with 283 markers. His 162 points in twelve conference games was good for third place among the leading conference scorers. Clarence Gibson was second high team scorer with 237 points to his credit. Westerman held third place with 197. Herman Smith, Bill Wilkins, George Key, Ray Corron, and Buddy Smith also played outstanding games, contributing an important part to the success of the team.

The Junior Varsity, with Mr. Fladd as coach, won six games and lost four. They defeated Lexington and Central twice, lost twice to Waynesboro, and divided wins with Covington and Harrisonburg. Bobby Hawkins was high scorer with 114 points. Harmon Rule, Benny Smith and Benny Rudisell were also outstanding.

1951 Basketball Summary

(MOUNTAINETTES)

The 1950-51 Mountainettes won ten games and lost only one. Coach Burnette's well rounded sextet won their last eight games and their first two of a rugged eleven game schedule.

The only loss was to Wilson Memorial, 24-23. Wilson took an early lead in this game and led 13-5 at the half. The Mountainettes cut the deficit to 23-17 during three periods of play, but the lead was too great and their opponents held on for the win.

In the return game CFHS won 46-44. This time the Mountainettes were again behind, 15-12 at the end of the first quarter; but they went ahead in the second period, and Wilson never caught up. A last quarter rally almost tied the score, but the Clifton Forge squad successfully froze the ball.

Before the first Wilson game the Mountainettes had defeated Eagle Rock twice, 48-24 and 30-24. In each game there was a quarter in which the Eagle Rock girls didn't score.

Following the loss to Wilson Memorial they rebounded by walloping Central 61-43. And Covington 61-42. Joyce Howard scored 57 points in these two games.

The play of the guards was outstanding in the next games, as Valley fell 48-29 and Central was defeated 35-27. The fifth straight win then came from Wilson, after which Valley High was again trounced 46-18 for the sixth straight victory.

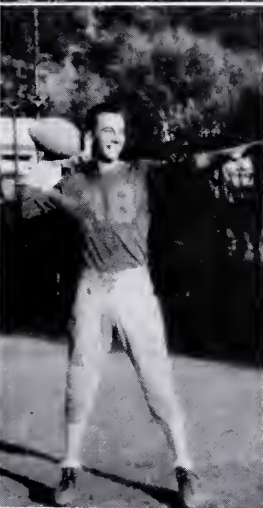

Following a 32-28 win over Covington, they closed the season with a 41-31 victory over the Alumni.

The girls' junior varsity played one game at the end of the season, edging Jeter School of Covington, 32-31.

Joyce Howard and Dickie Deaton were the offensive stars of the season. Deaton scored 173 points and Howard, 162. Betty May Goin came next with 58 and Peggy Wilhelm with 50.

The outstanding play of the guards was important in every win. Juanita Showalter, Lynda Gallagher, Charlotte Brown, and Jean Tyree were particularly good, as the opposition was limited to 30 points per game.
